

Ralf Peters is the Chief of UNCTAD's Non-Tariff Measures Programme and Officer in Charge of the Trade Analysis Branch in the Division on International Trade and Commodities. He has extensive experience in supporting developing countries with trade analysis and in trade negotiations. Prior to his current position he was Chief Technical Advisor at the ILO for trade and employment. He holds a Ph.D. in economics and was Assistant Professor for entrepreneurship.

Christian Knebel is an Economic Affairs Officer at UNCTAD. He leads UNCTAD's support programme to the African Union on the implementation of the AfCFTA Non-Tariff Barriers mechanism. Specializing on research on non-tariff measures and regulatory cooperation, he has drafted reports on the AfCFTA, ECOWAS, SADC, ASEAN and MERCOSUR. He was a visiting lecturer at the World Trade Institute. Previously, he worked at the International Trade Centre. He studied International Economics at the University of Tübingen, Germany, and in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Mingcong Li is a Trade Specialist at UNCTAD. She has expertise in trade analysis, technical cooperation, and research, especially in the areas of non-tariff measures. She is currently leading the development of the TRAINS Portal, a business intelligence tool for disseminating comparative information on trade policy data across the world. Prior to joining UNCTAD, she has worked at the ITC supporting organization-wide grant pipelining. She holds a Master's degree in Development Studies from the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies (IHEID) in Switzerland and studied law and international relations in China and the United States.

Seul Lee is an Associate Economic Affairs Officer at the UNCTAD. She has worked on trade policy analysis, technical cooperation and intergovernmental support, especially in regard of non-tariff measures. Her recent projects include enhancing regional economic integration and regulatory transparency in the Pacific region. Previously, she worked at the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development and the International Trade Centre. She studied at the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies in Switzerland, Yonsei University in South Korea and Keio University in Japan.

Divya Prabhakar has been a consultant at UNCTAD, Trade Information Section, Division on International Trade and Commodities, working on various technical cooperation projects linked to non-tariff measures. She holds a master's degree from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Tufts University.