

Mr. Torbjörn Fredriksson heads the ICT Analysis Section of UNCTAD's Division on Technology and Logistics. He is among other things responsible for the annual Information Economy Report and UNCTAD's work on e-commerce and ICT measurement. He represents UNCTAD in the Partnership on Measuring ICT for Development and is one of the organizers of the annual WSIS Forum. Mr Fredriksson joined UNCTAD in 2000 and was for eight years one of the principal authors of the World Investment Report. Before joining UNCTAD, Mr Fredriksson has held positions at the Invest in Sweden Agency, the Swedish Ministry of Industry and Commerce the Industrial Institute for Economic and Social Research in Stockholm. He is the author of several books and has published articles related to international trade, investment and technology, for example, in the Journal of International Business Studies, International Journal of Industrial Organization and the Journal of World Investment. He holds an MSc in International Economics from the Stockholm School of Economics.

Ms. Cécile Barayre is Economic Affairs Officer working in the ICT Analysis Section of UNCTAD's Division on Technology and Logistics. Since 1997, she has been carrying out research and implementing technical cooperation programmes in the area of information and communications technologies for development. She is in charge of the UNCTAD's E-commerce and Law Reform Program created in 2002. The program aims to help policymakers of developing countries prepare cyberlaws harmonized with regional/international frameworks. She holds an MSc in International Law from the University of Panthéon-Assas (Paris II) and in Political Science from the Institute of Political Studies (Toulouse).