

Short courses for Permanent Missions in Geneva

Investor–State dispute settlement

Thursday 3 December 2009

SPEAKERS

Biographical notes

Ms. Anna Joubin-Bret is Senior Legal Adviser with the Division on Investment and Enterprise of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) in Geneva.

She is an expert on national and international investment legal frameworks. She is providing expertise to developing countries through the delivery of technical assistance and capacity-building activities (training courses and advisory services) and participation in national, regional and international conferences and seminars. She also contributes to and oversees the publications of the Division, in particular the Series on issues in international investment agreements, the Series on International Investment Policies for development, the seminal studies on international investment rule-making, and the investment policy reviews.

Ms. Joubin-Bret holds a post-graduate degree in Private International Law from the University of Paris I, Panthéon-Sorbonne. She graduated in International Economic Law and in Political Science.

She has been Legal Counsel in the legal department of the Schneider Group; General Counsel of the KIS Group and Director-Export of Pomagalski S.A.. She has been appointed judge at the Commercial Court in Grenoble (France).

Mr. Hamed El-Kady is Expert on international investment policies with the Division on Investment and Enterprise of UNCTAD. He has been working on issues related to international investment agreements since 2002.

Mr. El-Kady provides specific inputs to UNCTAD's series on International Investment Policies for Development and to the World Investment Report. He also analyzes new policy developments in international investment agreements. He contributes to the intergovernmental activities of the programme and provides technical assistance to Government officials and policy makers on issues related to international investment policies and their development implications.

He has published various articles on international trade and investment agreements in the Arab world and their development implications. Mr. El-Kady holds a Master's degree and a B.A. in International Relations from the European Campus of Saint Louis Webster University, Geneva.