

Short courses for Permanent Missions in Geneva

Transport and trade facilitation: infrastructure and services to enhance the competitiveness of landlocked and transit developing countries

28 May 2010

PROGRAMME

Geneva, Palais des Nations		Room XXV
10:00-10:05	Welcome
10:05-11:25	The demand and supply of international transport services Followed by an interactive discussion Jan Hoffmann , Chief of Trade Facilitation Section, Trade Logistics Branch, Division on Technology and Logistics The findings of ongoing research into best practices which enhance LLDC's access to seaports in neighbouring transit countries Vincent Valentine, Economic Affairs Officer, Transport section, Trade Logistics Branch, Division on Technology and Logistics
11:25-11:40	Coffee break
11:40-13:00	Collaborative approaches for public and private stakeholders in landlocked and transit developing countries Followed by an interactive discussion Maria Misovicova, Economic Affairs Officer, Trade Facilitation Section, Trade Logistics Branch, Division on Technology and Logistics	